Healthy hormone balance*

Each endocrine gland has one or more specific functions, but all rely on one another for the maintenance of normal hormonal balance within the body. To achieve homeostasis, all must be functioning optimally. This one of a kind formula is uniquely designed to nourish the endocrine system as a whole by supporting the glands within it.* A healthy endocrine system makes the hormones that help control everything from mood, growth, and development to the function of our organs, metabolism, and reproduction.

- Glandular Support. MasterZyme includes adrenal, thyroid, pituitary, and gonadal tissues to fortify the endocrine and reproductive systems.* This comprehensive BSE-free glandular blend is tested for purity and safety.
- Herbal Ingredients. Shatavari supports both male and female reproductive vitality and rejuvenation, Black Cohosh and Bladderwrack are known for their ability to support healthy thyroid function, and Rose Hips are a natural source of antioxidants and Vitamin C.*
- Enzyme Blend. This formula includes proteolytic, lipolytic, and polysaccharolytic enzymes to promote a healthy pancreas, effective digestion, timely elimination, and improved absorption and delivery of the various herbal and glandular ingredients.*

Health Benefits: Transformation's MasterZyme is an Enzyme supplement with herbs and glandulars designed to encourage reproductive health and support energy, reducing lethargy and fatigue in both men and women.*
